

Training Opportunities for Certified Food Inspectors

Recertification Training for Certified Food Inspectors Fall 2009 (6 Contact hours toward recertification)

Training will include review of important food establishment inspection issues and investigation techniques. Topics will tentatively include: updates on proposed regulatory changes; ethnic foods; recent foodborne outbreaks; risk factor violation identification; food worker hygiene; and more.

Register through TRAINConnecticut at <https://ct.train.org>
Additional information provided on the Train Connecticut website

Session sites:

1. Colchester Town Hall Thursday, October 22, 2009
8:00 am to 4:00 pm
(65 seats) 127 Norwich Avenue, Colchester
Cosponsored by the Colchester Health Department
2. CT DEP- Kellogg Environmental Center Thursday, October 29, 2009
8:00 am to 4:00 pm
(65 seats) 500 Hawthorne Avenue, Derby
3. Connecticut Dept. of Public Health Tuesday, November 3, 2009
8:00 am to 4:00 pm
(75 seats) 410 Capitol Avenue, Hartford, Building 470, Conference Rm. C
4. UConn Cooperative Extension Tuesday, November 17, 2009
8:00 am to 4:00 pm
(70 seats) Torrington Office 843 University Drive, Torrington
Cosponsored by the Torrington Area Health District

For additional course information contact the Food Protection Program at 860-509-7297.

---

Cross Connections & Backflow Training (Contact hours have not been requested for this training.)

Thursday October 8, 9 am-12 pm at the CT Dept. of Transportation

The course will be given by Adam Pandolfi from Regional Water Authority and Bill Sullivan from the DPH Drinking Water Section and is sponsored by the Connecticut Environmental Health Association.

Register through TRAINConnecticut at <https://ct.train.org>
Additional information provided on the Train Connecticut website

---

FDA Satellite Broadcast “Using Employee Health and Personal Hygiene Measures.”
Featuring the Lisa Bushnell’s Ill Food Worker Project

November 19, 2009

Check back for location, registration, and contact hour details.

---